COUNCIL BLUFFS

Fire at the Driving Park. The firemen insist that fires like misfortunes never come singly, so they were not at all surprised yesterday afternoon when another alarm came in. The call was from box 46, at the Chicago & Northwestern depot. The fire was found to be at the driving park, where the north one of the large barns was in flames. The long run was made as quickly as possible, but the department could do but little, as they could not get water within a suitable distance. Four horses were in the stable at the time, but they were got out uninjured. The cause of the fire is unknown. The barn was a long one-story frame building, with a loft. The loss is about $2,000.

The driving park managers here had bad luck, indeed, with their buildings. Their large floral hall, a very fine frame building, was wrecked by a cyclone a few years ago. The wind also unroofed a portion of one of the amphitheatres, and did other damage. Another time fire not only burned stables but a number of very valuable horses.

missed in Justice Schurz's court, and the prisoner immediately rearrested on a warrant issued by Squire Biggs. The defendant's attorney, Mr. Snyder, has filed an affidavit for a change of venue, and the case goes back to Squire Schurz. The case is now set back to Squire Schurz. The case is now set for hearing before Squire Biggs at 10 o'clock to-morrow, but the latter justice will not try the case. A great deal of ill feeling exists between the families of defendant and the prosecuting witness, and the case has the appearance of persecution We have just received an invoice o Solon Patmer's fine perfumes, Sache powders and toilet soap, Dell G. Morgan

Judge Aylesworth's police court grist keeps Yesterday morning F. Holley was assessed $8.10 for drunkenness, and W. Clark and George Slather $7 60 each for the same offense. Fred Plum and Morgan McKenna were sent to jail for thirty days for vagrancy, Four others of the same ilk were discharged. Pat Gilfoil and James Donahue were each fined $14.60 for disturbing the peace and malicious mischief. They were fired out of a Lower Broadway bagnio kept by Neliie

Moore and retaliated by smashing in the doors and windows until the police arrived. When you are looking for holiday presents don't forget to give us a call. We have a fine line of Christmas books, plush cases of all kinds and Christmas

The Doings of the Doctors. The Medical Society of the Missouri Valley met yesterday in the Masonic temple hall. It was quite largely attended, there being sixty or more of these learned gentlemen present from various parts of Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri. This society was organized only last September, and yet it already gives assurance of becoming one of the most influential in the country. Twenty-five new members were enrolled yesterday. This was the first meeting at which any prepared pa-pers were presented. Dr. Jones, of Omaha, read one upon "The Etiology of Neoplasms." It was pronounced one of the best written papers ever read before such a gathering.

Dr. Margaret Cleaves, of Des Moines, gave a most practical paper in favor of dress re-form for women. She illustrated her views by various drawings, showing the disastrous effects of corsets, and other features of fashionable dress. She believes heartily in a complete reform, and has already begun to practice what she preaches. Every woman in the city should have heard her. "Dermatology and the General Practitioner," was the title of a valuable and interesting paper by Dr. Frank Porterfield, of Atlantic.

Dr. Peabody, of Omaha, gave a paper on "Diphtheria," which was followed by a lively discussion as to the best methods of treat-ment. The next meeting of the society will be held in this city March 21.

Chet E. Stephenson is home for the holi-days from lows City, where he is taking a two years' course in the law department. He will remain about two weeks.

Miss A. R. Smith leaves to day for Cedar Rapids, her old home, for a visit of a few weeks. She is quite actively and successfully engaged in real estate business here.

H. A. Greene, of Elkhorn, Wis., a brotherin-law of Sol H. Foster, has strived here to make this his permanent home. He has purchased an interest with Mr. Foster in the paint, oil and glass business. Miss Mary E. Oliver, daughter of John Oliver, has arrived home from Chicago to spend the holidays. She is taking a course of musical instruction, both vocal and instrumental, in that city and is making flattering progress.
